"DON JUAN IN HELL" PRESENTED AT USD SEPTEMBER 27 - 29

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Diego, California

"Don Juan in Hell" a drama of wit and philosophy, will be presented at the University of San Diego September 27 - 29. Curtain time for the dramatic reading is 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday (September 27 and 28) and 4:30 p.m. Sunday (September 29) in Salomon Lecture Hall, De Sales Hall. The public is invited to attend.

An excerpt from Shaw's "Man and Superman", the drama is traditionally presented without costume, settings or action, stressing voice and meaning. USD faculty members Dr. Arthur F. Ide and Mr. B. R. Van Vleck will play the characters of Don Juan and The Commander respectively. Dona Ana will be portrayed by La Jollan Mrs. Charles King, a 1964 alumna of the San Diego College for Women. John Wessley Houston, USD senior, will play the Devil.

The characters in this dream sequence form the trilogy of father, daughter and lover attempting to justify themselves and their lives. They must deal with all the modern problems of man and woman expanding the age old concerns of philosophy and religion.

Tickets will be available at the door the evening of the performance, $2.50 general admission and $1.00 for students with identification.
